NARRATIVE:

Christopher Cason has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include assault causing great bodily harm, possession of burglary tools, evading police with no regard for safety of others, vehicle theft, burglary and failing to report. He has served multiple incarcerations the longest a 16 month state prison term for evading a peace officer with no regard for safety of others. Cason was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on December 13, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in July 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Cason qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for evading a peace officer with no regard for safety of others is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
